Mesa County Libraries Computer Use Rules

- You must use your own library card for computer access.
- You are responsible for saving all work and data.
- Changing computer settings is not allowed.
- Printing is $.15 per page - black and white only.
- Refunds are not given for unwanted print jobs - Please preview your work.
- Food is not permitted when using public computers and all drinks must have a seal-able lid.
- Please use a courteous volume level when using a cellphone or having a conversation.
- Please keep your computer volume at a reasonable level when using headphones.
- At approximately 10-15 minutes before closing, sessions will stop renewing and computers will no longer allow access.
- Computers located in the Children's area are for children 11 years old and younger.
- Computers located in the Teen area are for teens between the ages of 12 and 18 only.
- Any violation of these rules may result in the suspension of computer privileges at every branch throughout the library system.
- Residents outside of Mesa County may request an internet guest pass with valid ID.

Computer Lab-Specific

- When the lab is not scheduled for a class, it will be available for the public.
- Patrons must vacate the computer lab at least 15 minutes prior to a scheduled class.